

Good Day and Peace from the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!!! I AM not here to argue scripture with you. Let us agree on a few basic, fundamental oracles of God. 1. God Loves His Creations. 2. We Love Him. 3. Sustaining Life on Earth is Impossible without Him.

I can only deliver the details live and in person, face to face, in the flesh. The written word is excellent for preservation, but has flaws; the spoken word delivered by messenger can be polluted by human character flaws. In the end, in order to eliminate all misunderstanding, lies, and mistakes, it is necessary for he who created the heaven and earth, to come and make things right.

I have given you the ability to reason, to think, to make up your own mind, to choose, your own destiny in life. This very thing is what distinguishes man, the species, from the rest of the animals and matter in the universe. Everything else obeys the characteristics of what ya'all call the laws of physics, and I commend the folks who have figured these things out, but, I will not allow myself to be made obsolete by my own creations. Did we just arrive at the whole meaning of things?

Contrary to popular belief, I am not a magician, magic is illusion, performed by actors, I am not an actor, acting requires pretending, pretending is not reality, I am real, as real as you, the only difference is that I possess knowledge and understanding, wisdom, superior to yours. Before you get your panties in an up wad, let's review some facts: 1. The Holy Bible has been lying around all of your life, the wisdom I speak of is found within it. 2. I am writing this letter to you, not vice-versa. 3. I am offering to give you this wisdom, free. 4. I have a plan that will eliminate all of the evil in the world. 5. History and current conditions prove without a shadow of doubt, much less by a preponderance, man cannot and will not make the choices that are necessary and right for all people to enjoy the same quality of life.

As Malachi asks, Will a man rob God? Yes, he will not only rob him, he will prosecute him, convict him, imprison him, attempt to kill him, and after all that, demand payment for doing it. Arrogance at its best, man. Not only have you done it to me, you do it to my children, innocent blood. Guilty as charged, conviction stands, your appeal must be received in this office no later than 30 days from today, you are to appear live, in person, to show cause as to why your life is more valuable than ours.
