

Good Day and Peace, from the Prince of Peace!!! My Dear Friends; please allow me to shed some light upon the darkness of the world. It is time to put away the hatred and anger; these are negative and wasteful emotions. Love is the only motivation and tie that binds our hearts and minds. We have seen and heard your desires and petitions. Just as atoms of individual elements combine and separate into different molecules and matter; yet they retain their individuality they change form and shape; depending on the force that is applied to them. Solids, liquids, and gases. When electrons flow through a conductor the conductor does not deteriorate; as long as the temperature and potential difference are regulated within safe operating ranges, more on the energy crisis later. In the beginning, God said: do not eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. They did and some still do. Our Father loves us all; His only desire is to love us. Anyone who tells you any different is a liar in need of correction, bring them to me and I will apply the correction. And the spirit of God moved upon the waters. In order to see the kingdom of God, one must be re-born; of the water and the spirit. This is the process by which we are saved, from the destructive force of lies and deception, untruth. The evidence is crystal clear; the consequences of not doing what God asks of us are true. Therefore the benefits of doing what He asks are true also. Death is the issue. The Spirit is life. A human body absent the Spirit of God; can only obey the law of natural decay and will return from where it came, dust.

The conflicts of the world begin and end, in the hearts and minds of the individuals that comprise the population of the world. By removing the things that divide us we become one in Spirit and Truth. The truth shall set us free, from the law of sin and death. The testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy; Worship God. The purpose of life is to please God. It pleases God when we love Him and each other. Nobody can find peace without resolving the conflicts within their heart and mind, first!!! The body seeks peace; unity with its creator. Once the body is at peace internally, it seeks to apply peace externally. For humans to be happy they must be at peace with themselves and their environment. The environment that God created is Heaven; the earth is contained within that environment. It is God that rules Heaven, not man. So we see that in order for mans governments to take their proper place in the Kingdom, they must submit to the Authority of God. In doing this their misplaced responsibilities are put back in proper order and the conflicts between governments is removed from man and placed into the hands of God. This does not remove the need for government it strengthens governance. It removes all question of security, and places the answering of disputes in the Court of the Most High God.

I AM the Master of NON-VIOLENT Conflict Resolution.
Inform the world; God is on the throne and the Lamb is at home!!! Return unto me and I will return unto you, Peace and Prosperity, in a Safe and Secure environment. How much does this cost? It is free; Jesus paid the price for you long ago. This is the way to peace, this is the only way, there is no other!!! Money cannot produce peace, surely if it could, it would have by now. Focus on removing the reasons people feel the need to do wrong, the power of money and the things it buys. Replace the motivation and the motive will change. The Love of God is the only thing that one should seek and strive to obtain. For with it all things that are good will remain, forever. Life Eternal. Grasp hold of the tree of life, and eat thereof.

If you cannot grasp this freedom; then pay me what these services are worth to you. In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit!!!

Yours Truly,
Allen
