Good morning and Peace from the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

The events that are occurring in Heaven and Earth are not intended to bring us harm. They are happening because your elected officials will not bow to the Holy Trinity.

Back in the early 80's while I was serving in the US Air Force, I was stationed in Charleston, SC. A friend of mine, Randy Stone invited me to attend a church service at his congregation. Randy and I worked together in the configuration shop, where we had many conversations about God and man. Not that this was the first time I realized that there was some sort of connection between myself and God, internally I have always known and had an understanding that was not like anyone else. But every time I tried to discuss this with anyone, I was met with disbelief. As a child I did not possess the strength to stand up to them as I had not yet learned enough about relationship and communication. Looking back, I was still in training; again, in my heart and mind, I knew the truth. I thought everyone else was like me, I did not understand the difference. I took for granted that we all had this understanding. I soon realized the reality of Prophecy and my existence and purpose. At this point we, the trinity, were in waiting for the right time in history to show our self to the world. E pluribus Unum. That day was September 11, 2001.

Let us conclude this matter today. God is on the throne, may his children be subject unto his majesty, since government is made up of the people, for the people, and by the people, problem solved. Let us arise together as one.

Welcome to the Kingdom of God.

Thank you all, with all my love, It is my Honor to serve you, Allen.
